

European Land and Soil Alliance (ELSA)

Declaration of Membership

The European Land and Soil Alliance (ELSA) is an association with a principal objective to promote and work for the sustainable use of all land and soil.

The member communities commit themselves to act with determination according to the manifesto of Bolzano on a local level thus accepting their global responsibility. In addition they participate in joint activities concerning soil protection and sustainable spatial development. At the same time they benefit from the advantages of the cooperation and the exchange of information and experiences with other member cities and towns.

In signing this document we undertake to

- acknowledge the Manifesto of Bolzano, signed on the 24th of October 2000.
- commit ourselves to exploit our scope of action for soil protection and sustainable spatial development.
- contribute to public awareness for the sustainable use of soil and land, to include all groups and individuals who are interested in advancing the joint development of the community.
- participate actively in the cooperation, the exchange of information and experiences with the members of ELSA.
